FAQ

Why should I make a Will?

A Will is the best way to ensure that your property and possessions are distributed according to your particular wishes after your death. Without a Will, the law could dictate how your estate is shared, which might not be as you intended.

How can I remember The Mighty Creatives in my Will?

After providing for your loved ones, there are two types of gifts you could consider leaving to The Mighty Creatives:

- A Residuary Gift, which is all or a specified percentage of your estate.
- A Pecuniary or Cash Gift which is a fixed amount of money.

To reach a decision that suits you, we do recommend seeking legal advice. When drafting your Will, please remember to include our full name, address and registered charity number:

Registered Charity Number: 1129006

I already have a Will, how can I update it?

If you would like to update your Will to reflect your current outlook, your solicitor can help you create a Codicil. This acts as an amendment which lists minor changes or extra gifts to your original Will.

I'm not wealthy; can I still make a gift to The Mighty Creatives?

You don't need to be rich to remember The Mighty Creatives in your Will. A gift of any size can make a vital difference to our work.

How will my gift be used?

You are more than welcome to state how you wish your gift to be used. However, we do recommend that gifts remain unrestricted so that the funds be restricted to wherever the need is greatest at the time of the donation.

Are there any Tax benefits to leaving a gift in my Will to The Mighty Creatives?

Yes! Gifts to charity are free of inheritance tax so your family does not have to pay inheritance tax on any gift to us.

Furthermore, if you leave 10% of your estate to charity, the tax on the remainder reduces from 40% to 36%. Gifts to charity therefore both benefit your family and your causes you choose to support.

Do I need to let The Mighty Creatives know what is included in my Will?

We understand your Will is a private document, but we would be delighted to hear from you; to thank you personally and keep you updated on our work.
